RESUMPTION OF DEBATE ON IRISH TREATY

(By Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Ireland, Jan. 3.—Dail Eireann lost no time after reconvening following the holiday recess in plunging again into a sharp debate on the Anglo-Irish treaty. It has before it once more an order of the day calling for consideration both of Arthur Griffith's ratification proposal and De Valera's alternative proposals. It was not generally thought the debate would run many days longer, many members expecting a vote by Thursday night or Friday.

Michael Collins, in securing permission of Dail Eireann to make a suggestion for a voting division among the Dail members over the Anglo-Irish treaty, proposed in substance that its opponents allow the treaty to be approved and an Irish free state established, after which its opponents could continue their fight for a republic. De Valera jumped up at this to say that the fight for a republic will be continued in any case.

(By Associated Press)
BELFAST, Ireland, Jan. 3.—Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, addressing a congregation in Armagh cathedral, asked it to pray "that it might please Almighty God to save them from such a misfortune" as rejection of the Anglo-Irish treaty, which held forth the only hope of peace and tranquility to Ireland.

NEW YEAR'S EVE WAS USUAL NOISY EVENT

From an early hour in the evening until the dawn of another day and the streets of Tonopah were filled with a happy, carefree and joyous crowd, when good-bye was wished to old 1921. The shriek of the sirens and the rattle of countless firearms proclaimed that 1922 had arrived in the county seat of Nye county to spend a year with us. Dancing went on until an early hour in private homes and public gathering places. The clink of glass on glass, the shouts and laughter of the never ending crowd on the street and the din and merriment of Tonopah's population rivaled on a small scale the merriment that was everywhere present in the land.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF HOSPITAL DONATIONS

Mrs. Jessie Simmons, mother to all of the patients at the Nye county hospital, desires that proper credit be given for the numerous gifts donated to the patients during the celebration of Christmas time. Below is given a list of the gifts and donations as enumerated by Mrs. Simmons:

The tree was given by the Wittenberg company. The matron, Mrs. Mears, furnished the ornaments and trimmed the tree. Her one thought was the health and happiness of her patients. The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church all through the year and at Christmas bring sunshine to those who are shut-ins. The Elks remembered the men most generously, as also did the Pythian Sisters. But this year I asked that I might use their check toward a piano, or, if the men preferred, a phonograph. I feel sure those donating will be just as happy over their giving. Five men are very grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Kilger for warm jackets.

Donations to date:
Knights of Pythias.....$25.00
B. P. O. Elks.....25.00

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 3.—Mary Pickford's divorce from Owen Moore was the "worst of its kind, and should be the last of its kind," Attorney General Fowler declared in closing a brief filed in the supreme court here in an action to have the decree set aside.

"No language can be found in any law that can be tortured into giving an excuse for the untruthful testimony of the respondent and the fraudulent decree awarded her by reason of such untruthful testimony," Fowler declared in the brief. "To allow deceit and trickery to overthrow the law would be akin to anarchy."
